

Queen Elizabeth II Quiz Questions

Week 22

1. The Queen's official birthday celebrations take place on a Saturday in June. The high point of the festivities is an official parade. What's it called?

- a) Trooping the Colour
- b) Beating Retreat
- c) The Royal Maundy

2. Ever since she was a child, Elizabeth has been very fond of animals. The Crown actually asserts the right of ownership for one species of bird. Which one?

- a) Ravens
- b) Swans
- c) Owls

3. Which of these activities does Elizabeth like best?

- a) Scottish country dancing
- b) Archery
- c) Cricket

4. If you ever have the pleasure of meeting the Queen, it would be best to know the correct form of address. What should you say?

- a) Your Majesty
- b) Ma'am
- c) There's no prescribed form of address

5. The Queen never attended school, but Elizabeth did earn professional qualifications in one sector. Which?

- a) Nursing
- b) Driving
- c) Flying

6. In which Commonwealth country did Elizabeth actually live for a short time when she was a young woman?

- a) Canada
- b) Jamaica
- c) Malta

7. What other language, besides English, does the Queen speak fluently?

- a) French
- b) German
- c) Spanish

8. Which of these great houses does Elizabeth actually own herself?

- a) Windsor Castle
- b) Kensington Palace
- c) Balmoral Castle

9. At a state visit to Australia in 1954 there were reports of a heated row between Elizabeth and Philip. How did the Queen express her anger?

- a) She referred to her husband loudly as an idiot
- b) She refused to sit next to him at an evening reception
- c) She threw a shoe at him

10. Which of these actresses won an Oscar for her portrayal of the Queen?

- a) Kate Winslet
- b) Helen Mirren
- c) Emma Thompson

